The Executive Board and the members of the Juvenile Officers Association of Michigan and Ontario are proud to announce the 24th JOA Conference.

The conference is scheduled to be held at Michigan's beautiful Treetops Resort in Gaylord, MI on September 30th, October 1st and 2nd. We hope that this year's conference, with its slate of renowned speakers will fulfill your department or agency's requirement for educational or in-service training needs relating to juvenile issues.

Conference Overview

This year's conference features two dynamic speakers. The conference is specifically designed for police officers, school personnel, probation officers, court employees and lay personnel who are working with today's young adults.

The focus of this year's seminar is to educate the attendee's of possible indicators displayed in teen drug usage and depression/suicide. The presenters will discuss the current drug trends, prevention/detection techniques, as well as different drug cultures. They will address early warning signs of depression/suicide and discuss solutions.

This conference will meet the requirements set forth by the M.C.O.L.E.S. for distribution of funds under Public Act 302 supporting continued Law Enforcement training.
