Select one award below.

David McMahon Human Rights Award

Outside individual or group accepting the challenge of more and ethical leadership in the field of human and civil rights.

This award recognizes individuals or groups outside the MEA which distinguish themselves by courageously accepting the challenge of moral and ethical leadership in the field of human and civil rights.

David McMahon, as a teacher-leader, a MEA Board member, and as a MEA President, acted on his beliefs and initiated policies that resulted in an organizational commitment to protecting and enhancing the human and civil rights of all MEA members.

Gender Equity Award

Committed to the development of a project, program or study that promotes the value and talents of women.

This award honors individuals committed to the development of a project, program or study that promotes the value and talents of women. The work must contribute to gender equity in education and must be adaptable to the classroom.
