

HB 4421 – ESSER 3 Funding Proposal

By MEA Labor Economist Tanner Delpier – Updated 5/11/2021 (D. Pratt)

A recent proposal from House GOP leadership in HB 4421 would allocate ESSER 3 discretionary funding for districts due to receive less than $1,093 per pupil under the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Title 1-based formula. However, the total amount of equalization funding would be subject to a pro-ration formula based on the amount of weekly in-person learning being delivered, on average from April 12 to June 4. If a district was offering at least 25 hours per week, they would get 100% of the equalization funds – but if they were below that level, the amount would be prorated: over 20 hours per week would get 75%, over 15 hours 50%, and over 10 hours 25%.

If adopted by the House & Senate and signed by the governor, that proration would ONLY apply to that equalization funding (not the ESSER 3 formula funding distributed through the Title 1 formula, which makes up 90% of the revenue).

A full list of districts (in alphabetical order) is below so you can see what your district is slated to get under Title 1 based ESSER 3 funding (in the 3rd column) AND if your district would get equalization funding under HB 4421 (in the 4th column).

All this is pending the Legislature acting on distributing ARP funds, as well as remaining ESSER 2 funding from December. Please visit www.MiSchoolRelief.com to see how much your district is owed and contact your legislators about distributing those funds
